MISCELLANEOUS.

Mrs. Laura S. Webb,
Vice-President Woman's Democratic Clubs of Northern Ohio.

"I dreaded the change of life which was fast approaching. I noticed Wine of Cardui, and decided to try a bottle. I experienced some relief the first month, so I kept on taking it for three months and now I menstruate with no pain and I shall take it off and on now until I have passed the climax."

Female weakness, disordered menses, falling of the womb and ovarian troubles do not wear off. They follow a woman to the change of life. Do not wait but take Wine of Cardui now and avoid the trouble. Wine of Cardui never fails to benefit a suffering woman of any age. Wine of Cardui relieved Mrs. Webb when she was in danger. When you come to the change of life Mrs. Webb's letter will mean more to you than it does now. But you may now avoid the suffering she endured. Druggists sell $1 bottles of Wine of Cardui.

OUR SENATE.

An English View of Its Power, Authority and Performance.

The senate has played a very great part in American history, and, on the whole, the tremendous power and authority wielded by the senate have been well exercised. The majority of the senators are statesmen of great political ability as well as men of high character.

There are few sights in the political world on either side of the Atlantic more impressive than the senate in session. The sense not only of a very high standard of personal capacity, but of the immense powers which it wields, seems to pervade the assembly. The smallness of their numbers, the fact that they are armed with authority which is executive as well as legislative and the knowledge that they represent not mere localities, but states, in their corporate capacity, and states which are often as populous as European kingdoms, naturally fill each individual senator with the sense of personal distinction. A United States senator is a very great man, and he knows it, and the senate, as a whole, is intensely conscious and proud of the might, majesty and dominion which it wields. To make a comparison, it matters very little what an individual member of the British house of commons thinks and means to do, still less what an individual British peer thinks and means to do on any given subject, but it matters a very great deal what a single United States senator thinks and means to do.

The senate can veto every appointment made by the president, whether the man nominated for office be a judge of the supreme court or an ambassador or merely a collector of customs. Again the senate can, by refusing to pass it, veto any bill sent up from the lower house, no matter whether the bill is concerned with the raising or spending of money or with alterations in the law. Lastly, not a majority, but any minority which numbers over a third of the senate can refuse to ratify any treaty presented for ratification by the president. Thus the executive can make no binding treaty with any foreign power unless it can obtain a two-thirds majority in the senate. In other words, the senate can say the final word not only in regard to all legislation, but in regard to all finance, all appointments to high office and to foreign affairs of the nation.—London Spectator.

CYNICISMS.

Most people would rather throw a stone than a bouquet.

Every wife has the inward hope that her husband's next wife will be mean to him.

Don't think a man can keep a secret. Just think of the bad things he knows on himself.

A father has much to be thankful for if his daughter doesn't look apologetic when he enters the room.

When kin apparently get along well, they get less credit for peace than for ability to keep their skeleton hidden from the public.

When a man keeps a bill before paying it to look it over, it means that he doesn't expect to find blunders, but that he wants to gain time.

If you praise a man who really ought to be in jail, it is said that you have a kind heart, but if you praise a worthy man it is said you belong to a mutual admiration society and are slushy.—Atchison Globe.

Near Enough.

It was a Maine girl of whom the story is told that she refused to marry a most devoted lover until he had amassed a fortune of $10,000. After some expostulation he accepted the decree and went to work. About three months after this the avaricious young lady, meeting her lover, asked:

"Well, Charley, how are you getting along?"

"Oh, very well indeed," Charley returned cheerfully. "I've $18 saved."

The young lady blushed and looked down at the toes of her walking boots and stabbed the inoffensive earth with the point of her parasol. "I guess," she said faintly—"I guess, Charley, that's about near enough."—Philadelphia Ledger.

The Morning Bath.

An admirable way to take the morning bath by those who dread a daily plunge into cold water is recommended by an authority as follows: Stand in hot water deep enough to cover the ankles, fill a basin with cold water and spouge the body off quickly. Dry and rub vigorously and get into flannels before drying the feet. This is better for any one than daily immersion. It is the rubbing more than the water that is needed. Sponging off gives the excuse for the after rubbing, and the good result is gained.

Wins.

"Ah," she sighed, "the great men are all dead!"

"But the beautiful women are not," he answered.

Then she looked soulfully up into his eyes and told him she had said it just to be contrary and not because she thought it for a moment.—Chicago Record-Herald.

A HORSE AT THE SHOW.

Story of a Ribbon Winning From an Equine Viewpoint.

One of the popular features of the annual horse show in New York is the squad of park police horses that is always entered. The winning of a blue ribbon by one of these police horses is told in "Horses Nine," by Sewell Ford, from the viewpoint of the horse. The author says:

So it happened that one morning Skipper heard the sergeant tell Reddy that he had been detailed for the horse show squad. Reddy had saluted and said nothing at the time, but when they were once out on post he told Skipper all about it.

"Sure an' it's app'arin' before all the swells in town ye'll be, me b'y. Phat do ye think of that, eh? An' mebbe ye'll be gettin' a blue ribbon, Skipper, me lad, an' mebbe Mr. Patrick Martin will have a roundsman's berth an' chevrons on his sleeves afore the year's out."

The horse show was all that Reddy had promised, and more. The light almost dazzled Skipper. The sounds and the smells confused him, but he felt Reddy on his back, heard him chirrup softly and soon felt at ease on the tanbark.

Then there was a great crash of noise, and Skipper, with some fifty of his friends on the force, began to move around the circle. First it was fours abreast, then by twos, and then a rush to troop front, when, in a long line, they swept around as if they had been harnessed to a beam by traces of equal length.

After some more evolutions a half dozen were picked out and put through their paces. Skipper was one of these. Then three of the six were sent to join the rest of the squad. Only Skipper and two others remained in the center of the ring. Men in queer clothes, wearing tall, black hats, showing much white shirt front and carrying long whips, came and looked them over carefully.

Skipper showed these men how he could waltz in time to the music, and the people who banked the circle as far up as Skipper could see shouted and clapped their hands until it seemed as if a thunderstorm had broken loose. At last one of the men in tall hats tied a blue ribbon on Skipper's bridle.

When Reddy got him into the stable, he fed him four big red apples, one after the other. Next day Skipper knew that he was a famous horse. Reddy showed him their pictures in the paper.

A Reward and a Fine.

A few years ago, owing to the serious depredations of rat catchers on the banks of the Thames, the authorities were compelled to issue notice boards offering a reward of £5 for information, payable on conviction of the offender. Not many days after the notice appeared an Irishman was caught and, being brought before the magistrate, was ordered to pay a fine and costs amounting altogether to £2. Not having the needful, Pat went into retirement at the expense of the country. The next morning, however, another son of Erin appeared at the prison and, paying the fine, liberated his friend. The governor, having been in the court on the previous day, recognized the "liberator" as the principal witness against the accused. This puzzled him, and he asked for an explanation.

"Well," said Pat, "it's loike this, sorr: Tim and myself were hard up, and, seeing the notice, Tim agreed to be caught. I gave information against him, and this morning I drawed the money, and, now ye're paid, we've £3 left to start the world with."—London Answers.

Encouragement of a Great Singer.

Grassini, the great Italian singer, was very much interested in the young girls among her relatives and always ready to encourage any talent she could find in any of them. One day a novice was brought to her with the unpromising words, "She is a spoiled contralto and will never do anything on the stage." But the singer listened while the young girl began her frightened trills, when suddenly Grassini caught her in her arms with delight. "Why, you are not a contralto," she said, "but the finest soprano in the world. Your voice is far stronger than mine. Study well. You want none of my help. There is a rich bank in your throat." The little singer was none other than Giulia Grisi.

Linguistic Instinct.

The strength of the linguistic instinct in children is shown by the remarkable shifts they will make to find forms of expression for their perception or feelings. An examination of these shifts will show that the energy of the child manifests itself along precisely the same lines as have been taken by the languages of the races of mankind toward their ultimate forms. Thus, lacking the word "wide," a little one said, "Open the door loud," expanding the meaning of the word "loud" precisely as we do when we apply it colloquially to colors.

In a Quandary.

"Mary gets so excited when she reads history."

"Does she?"

"I should say she did. She's been reading English history, but she had to stop when she got to the Wars of the Roses."

"Why did she stop?"

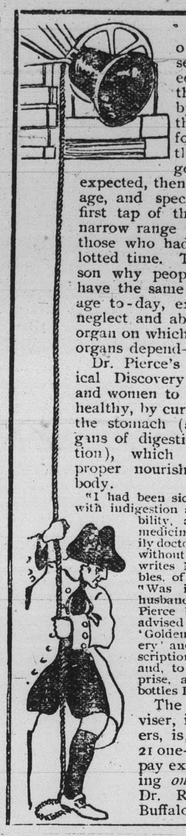
"She couldn't tell which rose she preferred to have win."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

Why He Moved Away.

Kind Lady—So you were in one place three years? Why did you leave?

Tramp—I wuz pardoned, ma'am.—Chicago Journal.

He who has health has hope, and he who has hope has everything.—Plato.



In the good old days the sexton announced a death in the community by a stroke on the church bell for every year of the life that was gone. People expected, then, to live to old age, and speculation at the first tap of the bell took a narrow range including only those who had lived the allotted time. There is no reason why people should not have the same expectancy of age to-day, except for the neglect and abuse of the one organ on which all the other organs depend—the stomach.

Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery enables men and women to be strong and healthy, by curing diseases of the stomach (and other organs of digestion and nutrition), which prevent the proper nourishment of the body.

"I had been sick for two years with indigestion and nervous debility, and had taken medicine from my family doctor for a long time without much benefit," writes Mrs. W. H Peebles, of Lucknow, S. C. "Was induced by my husband to consult Dr. Pierce by letter. You advised me to take 'Golden Medical Discovery' and 'Favorite Prescription,' which I did, and, to my great surprise, after taking six bottles I was cured."

KEEP A CHEERFUL MIND.

Not Only When Things Go Well, but When You Meet Disaster.

To be cheerful when the world is going well with you is no great virtue. The thing is to be cheerful under disadvantageous circumstances. If one has lost money, if business prospects fail, if enemies appear triumphant, if there is sickness of self or those dear to one, then is it indeed a virtue to be cheerful. When poverty pinches day after day, month after month or through the years as they pass and one has ever to deny self of every little longed for luxury and the puzzle of how to make a dollar do the work for two has to be solved, then the man who can still be cheerful is a hero. He is a greater hero than the soldier who faces the cannon's mouth. Such cheerfulness is the kind that we need to cultivate.

To acquire this self command we need to think of many things. We need to guard against giving way to irritation about little things. If we can maintain self control in small matters, we shall have less difficulty in maintaining it when great matters are to be met. If we meet with irreparable losses, we must readjust our lives to fit the new conditions. There is no great evil so bad but that it might have been worse. Let us congratulate ourselves that the worst is not yet. There is truth in the saying that "every cloud has a silver lining." Though it may for a time look so dark we can see no glint of the silver, yet we know it is there.—Milwaukee Journal.

Litigants' Requisites.

An old English solicitor used to say a man's requirements for going to law were ten in number, and he summed them up as follows: First, plenty of money; secondly, plenty of patience; thirdly, a good case; fourthly, a good solicitor; fifthly, plenty of money; sixthly, a good counsel; seventhly, a good witness; eighthly, a good jury; ninthly, a good judge; tenthly, plenty of money.

Badly Behind Time.

"Charley, dear," said young Mrs. Torkins, "isn't it a pity that the morning newspapers are so much behind time?"

"In what respect?"

"Why, they never print the name of the winner of a horse race until the next day, when it is too late to bet."

California Wine and the Fraudulent Label.

A dispatch from Washington under date of June 22d, says "that Dr. Wiley, the chemist of the Agricultural Department who will have charge of the examination or adultreated articles imported after July 1st, which are placed under the ban by the new law is of the opinion that the California wine trade will be greatly benefited by shutting out impure and foreign wines. The new law can be made very strict and the officials of the Treasury and Agricultural departments say they will enforce it to the letter."

For the future of our wine industry it is to be hoped that these officials will do all that is claimed for them in the dispatch quoted above. If they really do this the Sonoma Valley winegrower will rise up and call them blessed.

For twenty years or more the California winegrower in general and he of the Sonoma Valley in particeular, has been sadly handicapped in introducing their vintages into the markets, not only of the East and the South American republics but right here at home, by the introduction of spurious articles and false labels. The detestable decoctions put upon the market and falsely labeled "pure Calfornia wine" have worked a grievous injury to the genuine article and has encouraged many bottlers to buy up our pure unadulterated wines and put them on the market under a French label. In this way California wine is used upon the tables of those that can afford the luxury of a French label while those in more moderate circumstances very often buy a California wine label and drink the detestable stuff imported into this country by the winegrowers of France, the off-scouring as it were, of the Frenchman's vintage.

For more than two decades the products of many of the vineyards of Sonoma Valley have been represented on the wine cards of many of the swell clubs of Californian and Eastesn cities under fictitious labels and connoiseurs have been buying a French label and drinking a California wine. Now this very same wine if bottled, capsuled and labeled as a California product would never, except in rare instances, have found its way into the swell clubs and aristocratic homes of our big cities, for the simple reason that the cheap spurious article has been too frequently labeled as a California product. In other words, to make it more comprehensive, the genuine high-class wines of our State are frequently marketed under a foreign label while the stuff shipped to this country from France is bottled, labeled and sold as California wine.

Of late years our winegrowers who are importers have done much toward exposing these fraudulent practices to the wine consumers of our Eastern cities. Particularly is this true of the Gundlach-Bundschu Wine Company of this valley, who years ago established a branch house in New York City, the J. Dresel winery, also of Sonoma, and the Swiss-Italian wine company of Asti, this county.

But these firms, and the other honest and enterprising wine importers of our State, in introducing their superb wines in the East while slowly but surely educating the palates of the wine consumers there as to the merits of our California vintages cannot drive the fraudulent decoctions out of the market. That task is now in the hands of the officials of the Trersury and Agricultural Departments of our Government. Therefore we say, let the new law against adulterations be enforced strictly to the letter.

Popular Endorsement of Competent Teachers.

About the nastiest squabble a rural newspaper can engage in is one relating to district school elections and the retention or discharge of the teachers. Fully realizing this, this journal, which is strong enough to have an editorial column which will never shirk its duty in fairly and fearlessly discussing public affairs, wishes to voice its displeasure at the attempt being made by a very few people in this community to effect, through the School Trustees, the removal next month of Prof. W. O. Hocker, principal, and Miss Minnie Cook, teacher of the primary department of the Sonoma Grammar school.

So far as we can discover no charges have been preferred against either, both of whom are peculiarly fitted to fill the positions they occupy. These teachers have won the confidence of their pupils and earned the respect and esteem of the parents of those pupils, and there is no reason for desiring their removal unless it be to make room for some especial favorite of the few who desire a change.

The other day a petition was circulated among the patrons of the school requesting the retention of all the teachers. This petition has been eagerly signed by almost every parent and patron of the school in the district and is a pretty fair indication of how those teachers stand in the estimation of the general public. There is no two sides to this question at all as all local factions are united in favoring the retention of Mr. Hocker and Miss Cook.

In view of the above facts he would be a reckless School Trustee indeed who would attempt to override public opinion as expressed by the petition in question by voting to oust two of the most competent teachers Sonoma has ever had.

RALEIGH BARCAR, editor of the Vacaville Reporter, has just issued from the press a handsome and profusely illustrated special edition of his excellent newspaper. Its twenty pages are replete with information about Vacaville and the Vaca Valley, one of noted fruit-producing sections of the State. Bro. Barcar, in issuing this latest edition of his excellent journal, has not only done himself proud but has likewise placed the people of his section under lasting obligations to him for making known their town and valley in such an attractive form.

Eyes With Double Pupils.

Cicero says that "the glance of all women with the double pupil in the eye is noxious, blighting and withering." Cadmus tells us that such persons would not drown. Still others say that if they did drown the body would never sink, neither would it decay. They could cure the disease of the chest—consumption—by rubbing their perspiration on the affected parts of the individual, and in case the double pupils were red instead of black they could cure the lepers and the blind.

Politician and Statesman.

"Maw, what's de difference between er politician and er statesman?"

"Well, honey, a mushroom's good ain't it?"

What He Did.

"What did that man do to make himself so famous?" asked the inquirer, gazing curiously at an individual who formed the central of a social group.

"To the best of my knowledge," replied the cynic, "he did the public."

Never Rushes the Growler.

"Do you drink pale beer, Miss Milwaukee?"

"No, indeed; papa buys our beer in bottles."—Boston Christian Register.

The fixed capital in agriculture in the United States is four times that in manufactures.

There is more catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years it was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease, and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer $100 for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials. Address

Courage Is a Matter of the Blood.

Without good red blood a man has a weak heart and poor nerves. Anemia means thinness of blood. It is common in men and young women and all those who work indoors, who do not get enough outdoor air and good oxygen in their lungs. There are too many white blood corpuscles in such cases, and there is often a peculiar sound in the heart, called a murmur, in cases of anemia. This heart murmur is caused by thinness of the blood passing through the heart, where normally a much thicker fluid should pass. Exactly as water and molasses would make noticeably different sounds in passing through a vent, so will thin and thick blood make sounds quite different from each other. It is quite possible that when you were told that you had a murmur in the heart you fancied you had heart disease. The murmur of anemia disappears when the blood regains its natural consistency and richnesss. It is not heart disease. Sometimes people suffer intense pain over the heart, which is not heart disease, but caused by the stomach. It is the occasion of much anxiety, alarm and suffering, for which its victim is dependent upon reflex disturbances from the stomach caused by indigestion. In the same way many bad coughs are dependent upon these reflex disturbances of what is called the pneumogastric nerve.

There can be no question that the common sense way of treating all these symptoms is first to cast out the poisons from the system by a simple vegetable laxative such as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. These are made from botanical extracts, in concentrated form. To enrich the blood and increase the red blood corpuscles, Dr. Pierce, years ago, demonstrated in his large practice that there was a vegetable compound that would quickly cure the bad symptoms enumerated above and increase the red blood corpuscles thereby feeding the nerves on rich blood and doing away with nervous irritability. This was his "Golden Medical Discovery" which also acts upon the digestion and assimilation of food in the stomach so that the blood gets its proper food from the stomach. Feed the lungs, stomach and heart on rich red blood and you have surely a healthy body which will throw off the germs of disease which lurk everywhere. Get as near to nature's way as you can. A medicine made entirely of botanical extracts and which does not contain alcohol is the safest. Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery contains no alcohol or narcotics. Some blood medicines do, and when alcohol touches the little red blood corpuscles they begin to shrink and are reduced to broken fragments and shapeless masses. They are fairly cut into pieces and eaten up by the alcohol. Therefore, an alcoholic medicine is not particularly good for the blood.

Mrs. Wm. Wise, of Fishburn, N.W. Ter., writes: "I came to Alberta, some two years ago, and was a total wreck. Had been told by good doctors in the United States that I had consumption. Had hemorrhages from the lungs, would also have dreadful pains in left side in the short ribs. Could not get my breath; would almost choke to death. Tried everything I could hear of. Several months ago started to take your medicines. Took eight bottles of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In truth, I never saw such a change. Could see the difference from the first bottle. I am now well for the first time in nine years."

Mrs. R. J. Hall, of Roxboro, N. C., writes: "I suffered nearly two years with jaundice and indigestion; in fact, my health failed completely. I tried everything for relief, including several doctors. Did not improve, but grew steadily worse and was given up. Was unable to do any work, and at night (after sundown) was blind, so that I would walk against chairs, etc., in room with lamp burning brightly. My husband finally wrote to Dr. Pierce, and under his advice, I began taking his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' Am happy to say that after taking six bottles I was cured. All my friends who saw me when sick and see me now, wonder at the result of your great and grand remedy. I was given up by all, doctors included, and had lost all hope myself. I feel that I owe my life to Dr. R. V. Pierce and his 'Golden Medical Discovery.' I recommend it to all my friends and to every one suffering from similar ailments."

Accept no substitute for "Golden Medical Discovery." There is nothing "just as good" for diseases of the stomach, blood and lungs.

CITY OFFICIAL PAPER.

SONOMA MAY HAVE A GLOVE FACTORY.

San Francisco Man in Town Sunday Looking for a Site.

A prominent glove manufacturer of San Francisco, whose name is withheld for obvious reasons, was in town last Sunday. His visit to Sonoma was one of business and not of pleasure.

The gentleman's presence in town was owing to the fact that he came here to hunt up a site for his glove factory, now located in the metropolis, but which he desires to transfer to some country town for business reasons which he does not at present want known.

This man employs a big force of hands and should he locate here the population of the town would be considerably augmented. All he is after is an eligible site and buildings and if these can be obtained he will lease or buy them.

Dr. Bernard, the Eye Specialist.

Dr. Bernard, the eminent eye specialist of San Francisco, will be at his office in the Union Hotel Monday as usual. Dr. Bernard, since coming here a few weeks ago, has built up quite a practice, having treated very successfully a number of our prominent people. When he first came here he had to give reference in order to establish confidence among our people as to his skill. He does not have to do that now, as those that he has treated here are loud in their praise of his skill as an eye specialist. If your eyes are troubling you go and see him. *

which also builds up the system that has suffered from them.

It is the best medicine for all humors.

A ROMANTIC AND SECRET MARRIAGE.

Fred. Ehrlich and Miss Lee Smyth Secretly Wedded Last April.

Miss Lee Shattuck Smyth, a young lady well known here, where she formerly made her home, is a bride. She was married in April last to Mr. Fred. Ehrlich of San Francisco, also a former Sonoma resident.

The wedding took place at Ukiah where Miss Smyth was visiting and the couple kept their secret until now from all but immediate relatives. They will make their home in San Francisco.

Mrs. Ehrlich is the daughter of Mrs. Jennie T. Smyth, formerly of this city but now of Santa Rosa. She is a granddaughter of the late Judge Shattuck and a cousin of Mrs. Granville Harris.

The bride and groom went to school together in this valley and have been secretly engaged ever since they were in their teens.

ARE TRYING TO SELECT A SITE.

Committee of the Dunbar Improvement Club to Select a Site for Library, Courthouse and Jail.

The courthouse, jail and library committee of the Dunbar Improvement Club has not reported favorably, or any other way as yet, to the club, on the lot offered by Dr. O'Donnell. Mr. J. W. Gibson, speaking for both himself and mother, has made an offer of a lot on the east side of town which might answer better for the purpose intended than O'Donnell's lot. Before this offer was made the committee was in favor of accepting the doctor's offer.

The California Northwestern Company owns a small lot near the depot which would make an ideal site for the proprosed Courthouse and jail. An effort will be made to secure it.

Dr. C. C. O'Donnell and J. W Gibson have resigned from the committee. The committee will be freer to act in selecting the site. Everything that is done will be for the best interests of the community.

Landmarks Fund Benefit.

A grand song recital will be given in Union Hall, Sonoma, by Miss Julie Granice and Miss Maybelle Craig of San Francisco on the evening of July fifteenth. A well known San Francisco elocutionist will assist and Miss Elizabeth Davis will act as accompanist. The net proceeds will be donated to the Landmarks Fund.

A Prominent Club Woman.

Mrs. Laura Bride Powers corresponding secretary of the California Historic Landmark League was in town Thursday. Mrs. Powers is one of the prominent club women of California. Her visit to Sonoma was in the interest of the old mission buildings.

GLEN ELLEN

By Chappie.

Ed. Skahan transacted business in Santa Rosa Tuesday.

Mrs. C. E. Poppe made a trip to Sonoma Wednesday.

W. S. Bonbright spent a day in San Francisco the fore part of the week.

Mr. Johnson and daughter have taken the Thierkoff cottage for the season.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Weise and two sons spent the past week in Santa Rosa.

The Auzerais Club of San Francisco will give a dance at Mervyn Hall on Saturday evening.

Wm. S. Smythe, a rancher of Napa Valley, paid a visit to this burg one day this week.

Mrs. Eph Cutter and friend spent Wednesday in Sonoma shopping and visiting friends.

Mrs. A. F. Whitton and four children of Oakland are spending their summer vacation at the Ross ranch.

Count Kenzon of Italy has been touring this county and spent three days in this burg a guest at the Riverside.

W. H. Cook of San Francisco, for several years carpenter at the California Home, visited Glen Ellen Thursday.

The Cramers, it is reported, have struck it rich in their mine in the hills north of town. The strike was made the fore part of the week.

H. C. Manuel of San Francisco is spending a few weeks with his daughter, Mrs. Eph Cutter, at her bungelow, "Sunny Nook," on the Ross ranch.

O. H. Packer, a surveyor from San Francisco, and his assistant, K. F. Craft, are surveying the grounds in the Park for W. S. Gilbert's new brickyard, which he expects to have in operation by November 1st. Mr. Gilbert is registered at the Mervyn.

A picnic of poor children in charge of the Sisters of the Holy Family visited the park here Thursday. The little ones were wild with joy at being in the country with its bright sunshine, birds and flowers. Sister Dolores looked after the children. This good sister was a Miss Tobin and is the daughter of President Tobin of the Hibernian Bank of San Francisco.

F. J. O'Neil and family and Ed. Long are spending their vacation camping in the park. Mr O'Neil is connected with the Curtin-dry goods house on Market street San Francisco, and is a live man full of business. He is enjoying the park and surroundings and thinks Glen Ellen is the place for recreation, enjoyment and restful quiet.

The preparations for the Fourth of July celebration are completed. There will be two floats from Glen Ellen. The first, with four horses carrying the Queen, will be driven by James Cowan. There will be twenty ladies in uniforms with escorts, twenty or thirty people on bicycles and many in carriages. No fire crackers will be allowed to be exploded during the march for fear of frightening the horses. At present the vote for Queen stands: Josie Lane, 125; Ella Monahan, 50; Shirley Cornish, 25; Pearl Allen, 4. The final count of votes will be made Saturday evening at 9 o'clock. The committee in charge have done everything in their power to make it a grand success. The place of meeting will be El Verano on the morning of the Fourth. They will form in line and march into Sonoma. Everybody turn out. The whole country will be there.

CALIFORNIA HOME DIRECTORS MEET.

They Decide to Retain Dr. Dawson as Superintendent.

At a meeting of the directors of the California Home, held last Tuesday, for the purpose of acting on the petition requesting the appointment of Dr. A. E. Osborne as Superintendent and for the transaction of other business, the directors decided to make no changes at the Home and voted to retain the present Superintendent, Dr. W. J. G. Dawson, whose management of the big institution has so far been satisfactory to the directors.

The meeting took place at the Grand Hotel, San Francisco, and the petition for Dr. Osborne's reinstatement was not presented, although the doctor was placed in nomination.

Robt. A. Poppe presided, and the directors present were Rev. Father Lyon, Wm. Thomas and C. E. Haven.

In addition to electing the superintendent, the trustees transacted considerable business. They opened and considered a number of contracts for supplies for the home, and the same were made a special order for a meeting to be held next Monday afternoon at 1 o'clock in the metropolis.

Assemblyman Frank A. Cromwell was elected treasurer, and ex-officio secretary. He will in future attend all meetings of the board and keep the records of meetings, as well as act as custodian of the funds of the institution.

During the session the board discussed many permanent improvements to the present buildings with their architect. These include the installation of fire escapes, plumbing, steam heating, laundry and fire apparatus, and it is probable that in the near future some of these improvements will be made at the home.

Arrangements were made for the installation of an oil pumping plant at the home. The furnaces at the home use crude petroleum, and frequently there is demurrage on the cars containing the same because it is not unloaded quickly. At present the oil is hauled to the home. A plant will be put in to pump it from the railroad station to the tanks at the rear of the building, which will be a saving of expense and time.

All of these improvements are in accordance with the appropriations made by the last legislature.

EL VERANO.

By Happy Hooligan.

Wm. Chance spent Monday in Tiburon.

Jos Dowdall visited in San Francisco one day this week.

Our resorts are filled to overflowing with summer people.

Mrs S. Fish of Atameda is a guest at the Dowdall farm.

William J. Kearney was an El Verano visitor to the metropolis Saturday.

A. W. Weaver has returned from the mines and is back in his blacksmith shop.

F. A. Riser returned from Capay Valley, Napa county, the fore part of the week.

Granville Harris was over from Sonoma Monday shakihg hands with the boys.

Leo Baines left for San Francisco Monday, where he will spend a few days sight seeing.

William Dexter, wife and child are spending a few days in this place visiting friends.

Thomas Walsh and wife of San Francisco are the guests of Mrs. Murphy at Lone Star camp.

Emmet Mullen attended the banquet given by the Native Sons in Sonoma Wednesday evening.

Adam Yenni of the Old Corner Saloon received a carload of wet goods the fore part of the week.

Frank Tuckler of San Francisco, who umpired the ball game in Sonoma Sunday, is visiting in this place.

Kenneth Weaver has returned from Tuolumne county and will spend a few months at his old home in this place.

Chris. Leudthred, pitcher of the Sonoma Baseball Club, was a visitor to our burg Monday. While here he was the real thing with the summer girl.

A large crowd of El Veranoites will turn out on the Fourth and take in the celebration to be given in Sonoma under the auspices of the Woman's Club.

The El Verano Minstrel troupe has been organized in this place and will give a series of performances throughout the county in the near future.

Arthur Reed (Tim O'Regan) of Sonoma was in town the fore part of the week putting up Fourth of July posters for the California Northwestern railway company.

Among those of our local sports who took in the ball game in Sonoma last Sunday were Jos. Murphy, Hugh Chance, Wm. Chance, Thos. F. Mullen and Jack Carlson, our tonsorial artist.

Patrick Murphy, an old time prize fighter, is registered at the El Verano Villa. Mr. Murphy was a great boxer in his day, and on one occasion stood up before the famous Jack Dempsey for six rounds.

John Serres, the popular proprietor of the Bellevue Hotel, has commenced building his new hall. Mr. Serres expects this latest addition to his hotel to be completed by the Fourth of July, in which event a big opening ball will be given on that night.

The ball game in Sonoma last Sunday was largely attended by the admirers of the national game in this place. All pronounced it an interesting contest between the rival ball teams. The game to be played next Sunday between the League of the Cross Cadets and the Sonoma boys will attract a big crowd from here.

The captain of the El Verano Twirlers was surprised the fore part of the week at receiving a challenge from the Cherry Pickers' Nine. The Twirlers wish to tell these youngsters through their favorite newspaper, the Index-Tribune, to go and get a reputation before they will be vouchsafed a game with the noted Twirlers.

A big fire broke out Thursday night at 11 o'clock on the O'Brien ranch a few miles west of this place. A large barn, fifty tons of hay, a valuable horse, a mowing machine, farm wagon, a buggy and other things were consumed by the flames, which raged furiously for over an hour. The origin of the fire is unknown. A large crowd of volunteer fire-fighters from this place fought the fire throughout the night and prevented its spreading to adjacent buildings and the surrounding hills. Much credit is due to Tony Serres, who hooked up his team and drove a party of fire-fighters with all the speed possible to the scene of the conflagration. Among the volunteers who did valuable work in preventing the fire spreading was Jack Farley, a member of the San Francisco fire department, and Jack Daughney, both of whom are temporarily sojourning here. The loss will be over $1,000.

SONOMA INDEX - TRIBUNE

H. H. GRANICE, Proprietor.

SONOMA, SATURDAY, JUNE 27, 1903.

BILLIARDS FOR WOMEN.

According to Shakespeare, Cleopatra Played the Game.

In France a gentleman is not ashamed to take his wife to see a professional billiard game. Frenchwomen are good billiard players and like to see all the fancy shots made by professionals as soon as they begin to attract attention. They read the billiard news in the daily papers and subscribe to journals published especially for billiardists. According to Shakespeare, women have played billiards from the time of Cleopatra. In 30 B. C. he makes the Egyptian queen summon Charmian to billiards. Mary, queen of Scots, was passionately fond of the game. On the evening preceding her execution she wrote to the archbishop of Glasgow that her billiard table had been taken away from her as a preliminary step to her punishment. The Empress Josephine used to rouse Napoleon from his gloomy moods by a game of billiards. Adelina Patti became disgusted with her English table and had one made in New York for which she paid $2,500.

The efficacy of billiards as a health restorer is beyond dispute. The motions gone through will reach every part of the body and operate on the entire system. They completely dispel languor and "that tired feeling." The tension of the muscles is tested and the blood sent in swifter circulation through the veins.

He Left the Stage at Hiero.

At an auction sale that lasted for the best part of a week the auctioneer's throat began to trouble him greatly, and to save himself as much as possible he had one of his employees read off the number and name of each article as it came up for sale. The assistant's pronunciation of such words as "marqueterie," "Francois," "Sevres," "Delacroix" and "Beauvais" was so weird that the audience "got on to him," and all those who were not too busily engaged in making bids were reading their catalogues to follow the assistant's blunders. He met his Waterloo when he started to read "Bronze and ormolu empire clock, set of three pieces, supported by Egyptian figures, chiseled"— And as he came to a full stop the catalogue readers burst into a roar of laughter that was inexplicable to the rest of the audience. The word after "chiseled" which the assistant simply refused to have a try at was "hieroglyphics."—New York Press.

Peculiarities of the Carnation.

The peculiarities of the carnation are such that under cultivation it has been made to take almost any character as to color or form of flower desired by the careful cultivator. It has been very popular with one generation of men and equally unpopular with the next. When in favor, the flowers increased in size, and the varieties became numbered by the hundreds. At one time fringed petals were in great demand and were secured; at another the smooth edged petals only found acceptance.

Two hundred years ago the gardeners thought the flowers imperfect if the calyx did not burst, and refractory flowers were knifed into fashion's line. But during the last 150 years the burst calyx has been deemed a defect, yet all efforts to prevent it in large flowers have not been wholly successful.

Historic Bachelors.

Many eminent men whose names are household words and who have left their impress upon the world were bachelors. Beethoven, Schubert, Bellini, Cinarosa and Donizetti, all great German musical composers, were bachelors. John G. Whittier, our American poet, was a bachelor. Kant, the great philosopher; Erasmus, the scholar and philosopher; Leibnitz, the German mathematician; Humboldt, the philosopher; Galilei, who discovered the application of the pendulum and that the earth revolves; Hugens, the German astronomer who discovered Saturn's ring and one satellite; Leibig, the chemist; Dr. Hahnemann, the originator of homeopathy; Dr. Franz Joseph Gall, the originator of phrenology, and Guericke, the inventor of the air pump, were all bachelors.

A Feat of Horsemanship.

For the sake of a wager a remarkable feat of horsemanship was some years ago accomplished by a sporting nobleman in a certain London mansion. He made a bet with a a friend that he would ride his pony from the ground floor of the house to the top and down again. His steed required a good deal of persuasion to attempt the task, but it was finally performed, though the damage done to the stair carpets and other things amounted to almost $1,000, which had to be paid by the winner.

Hasty Afterthought.

"Policeman," said the stranger, addressing the officer who was guarding the muddy crossing, "can you direct me"—

Here he slipped and fell.

—"to the nearest place," he continued, gathering himself up and surveying his soiled garments, "where they clean clothes?"—Chicago Tribune.

His Reputation.

Upgardson—On the strength of your recommendation I lent Bilcombe $5 the other day, and now I find he's a confirmed deadbeat that never pays his debts. You told me he was a man of established reputation.

Atom—So he is. That's the reputation he has established.

Maintaining the Proportion.

Mrs. Nagston—Why, my dear, the last time I heard you tell that story it was only $12 instead of $25 that you lost.

Mr. Nagston—Well, this crowd I'm telling it to is twice as big as that one was.

His Last Hope Realized.

(From the Sentinel, Gebo, Mont.)

In the first opening of Oklahoma to settlers in 1889, the editor of this paper was among the many seekers after fortune who made the big race one fine day in April. During his traveling about and afterwards camping upon his claim, he encountered much bad water, which, together with the severe heat, gave him a very severe diarrhoea which it seemed almost impossible to check, and along in June the case became so bad he expected to die, One day one of his neighbors brougnt him a small bottle of Chamberlain's Colic Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy as a last hope. A big dose was given him while he was rolling about on the ground in great agony, and in a few minutes the dose was repeated. The good effect of the medicine was soon noticed and within an hour the patient was taking his first sound sleep for a fortnight. That one little bottle worked a complete cure, and he cannot help but feel grateful. The season for bowel disorders being at hand suggests this item. For sale by F. Duhring. *
